J. E. Stacey of New Haven was a caller here Friday.

Sheriff W. H. Casey and Judge Herbert Rathbun were in New London Friday.

Miss Florence Heit has brought suit through her father, John Heit, against Frank Tierney for slander. Damages to the amount of $500 is claimed. The case was entered in the district court here Friday morning and was continued two weeks. Robert McKenna is counsel for the plaintiff and Judge Herbert Rathbun for the defendant.

STONINGTON

Ruth chapter, No. 44, O. E. S. held a meeting in Masonic hall Thursday evening. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Joseph F. Joseph. Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served. During the summer numerous picnics have been held at Dean's Mill by the chapter.

The Social Chain met Thursday evening in the church parlors and at the close of the business session there was a social with refreshments.

The entertainers at the winter season have started at the Community club Thursday evening, when a dance was enjoyed and moving pictures were shown.

Today (Saturday) Norwich Free Academy football team will play the Stonington High, at Stonington. A good game is looked for as the local team is in fine trim, having had hard practice during the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Chebro and daughter, Helen, are visiting in Millbrook, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Denehey have returned home after spending some time in Washington, D. C.

Oscar James, who is ill at his home on Cliff street, is improving.

A pear tree in one of the yards on Summit street is in bloom for the second time this season.

Ernest Cushman arrived in town Friday for the week-end. He has been at Winton in the interest of the Atwood Machine Co.

Ex-service men here who desire their Victory Medals are being advised to take their discharge papers so that a copy can be made of them, to the Red Cross rooms in Westerly, where Mrs. Lucy Crowley will get the medals for the men.

The members of the Wequetequock Community club gave a delightful miscellaneous shower to Miss Borretta Polard of Wequetequock, whose engagement to Charles White, was announced. Miss Polard received many beautiful gifts including linen, cut glass and silver.

During the evening dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A Halloween social is to be held next week at the Wequetequock Community club and Friday evening the members are arranging to hold a party for the children, also a husking bee is being planned.

All ex-service men are being invited to bring their discharge papers to the Red Cross rooms so a copy can be made and thus secure a victory medal for those who have not received one. Each ex-service man is entitled to one.

The trolley car due to arrive in Westerly at 1.15 on the Shore Line electric road was delayed about 10 minutes on Mechanic street owing to the fixing of the trolley company's tracks and roadbed along Mechanic street. The steam roller is at work here and between the tracks is being asphalted, so as to conform to the new cement road just finished, from West Broad street, to Cottrill's shop.

The laying and welding of the track up High street is nearly completed, but the filling in and paving is yet to be accomplished. The Groton & Stonington trolleys still have their terminal on the bridge.

GALES FERRY

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church held its Thursday afternoon meeting in the vestry of the church. It was voted to add $25 from the society's fund to the Kate B. Colver Memorial fund, for the upkeep of the M. E. parsonage. This fund was started last spring by the gift of $25 from the society, in memory of Miss Colver, who was president of the society at the time of her death and had been for eighteen years. Since the last business meeting of the society in August, $15 has been given, $10 of which was a gift to Mrs. Edwin Keeney of New London, who formerly resided in Gales Ferry. With other individual gifts the fund has reached $30. The society also voted to add to their deposit in the savings bank $25.

The Boy Scouts, with their scoutmaster, Dudley C. Perkins, were entertained at the home of one of the scouts, Gordon Manierre, Wednesday evening. Cake and cocoa were served.

Mrs. R. Irving Hurlbutt entertained Tuesday afternoon. The guests were busy making luncheon sets, orders for the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church. Delicious watermelon was served by the hostess during the afternoon.

The Gales Ferry Pineapple club held its weekly meeting in the Country club house, Wednesday evening. Pioneer Hose Company, of Groton, has challenged the club for another tournament this season and arrangements are being made for the event.

Visitors at the summer home here of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Risdon for the week-end and a few days were Mr. Risdon and his son, Charles Risdon, of New York. Mr. Risdon's sister, Mrs. Adelle Secor, Mrs. Risdon's sister, both of Watertown, N. Y.

Donald Irwin of New York returned to that city Wednesday after spending a few days with Mrs. Irwin at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Apple.

Mrs. Charles H. Winchester of Norwich was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Winchester at their bungalow at Perkins place, Monday.

Cyrus Allyn, of Springfield, Mass., is spending a few days with his son, Thomas Allyn, at Mr. Allyn's former home at Allyn's Point.

Mrs. Katherine Risdon went to the New York home of the family Wednesday to spend a few days.

Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins left Friday to visit Mrs. Lloyd Crosby in Boston.

JEWETT CITY

The crack bowling team from Plainfield came to town Thursday evening and carried away the bacon, defeating the Pilgrims of local fame by the following score:

| Plainfield    | Jewett City      |
|---------------|------------------|
| Coutu .....   | 125 141 30-355   |
| Eastman ..... | 108 119 25-323   |

| Totals .....  | 554 564 570 1640 |

The Ashland Cotton Company is putting in a new gate on a one-time flume delivery, which is now not used for that purpose. It was first considered expedient to fill up the unused channel, but now, supplied with a gate, an opportunity is given for further waste, should high water ever demand it. The big reservoir has been drawn down to complete the work necessary below high water stage.

Mr. Magel has a lilac in full bloom, which she picked Thursday. William Deamney picked a violet as blue and fresh as in springtime.

Mrs. J. C. Hawkins comes in for her usual fall display of golden chrysanthemums.

In a Soule street window is a potato on exhibition, evidently the father of all potatoes. It weighs 2 1/2 pounds.

Several from here who were planning to be present at the annual harvest supper in Central Village received the notice of the date too late by a week.

There were more hunters in the woods Thursday than there was game. One man did see a pheasant but thought it was a turkey and righteously refrained from shooting.

A new visitor in town as he approaches over the state road from the north is impressed with the pronounced building activities. At Tadpole is a fine new house just completed, owned by Mr. Rakanowski, then, at the entrance to the borough, there are the five new houses in course of construction by the Asphook Company on the west front of the street, with as many more on the Belvidere lots on the East Side.

As the 6.12 morning mail train was about to leave the station Friday the steam locomotive burst between the head car and the tank, with a loud roar.

Visitors gave evidence of much alarm, and some looked skyward as so to dodge the pieces of the boilers on the return trip.

One of the jurymen who served on a recent trial is having a frame made for the two dollar bill he received for two days' duty in the box. He mountfully tells of his visions of eight big bones, but, oh, you two!

As the strike situation didn't seem quite so bright Friday, a sort of straw canvass of available men to do railroad work has been made in the borough with the result that Jewett City has plenty of good men willing to act as conductors, brakemen or firemen, but when it comes up on the right hand side of a big one-hundred-and-forty ton mogul, with a string of a dozen heavy Pullmans behind it the volunteers are kind of shy. Let George do it!

Rev. Myron D. Fuller will occupy the Baptist pulpit Sunday. Morning subject, Man of Nazareth. Evening, Convention Echoes, by Mrs. A. M. Brown and the pastor.

Rev. A. H. Andrews will preach at the Congregational church and lead the Y. P. S. C. E. at 8 p. m.

Rev. Mr. McLendon will preach at the Methodist church, Epworth League at 6 p. m., Mrs. S. D. Howe, leader.

PLAINFIELD

The Originals captured all honors in the men's bowling league this week, having a high team single of 692 and a high team three of 1876. Eastham of said team had a high single of 154 and a high three of 419. How the pins fell:

The news that the Plainfield bowling five took three straight from Jewett City Thursday evening added much to the keen excitement and interest in bowling on the local alleys. Since Labor Day interest in bowling has been at fever heat and all the local bowlers are doing their best to make the league teams and incidentally the "big" team.

The Parent-Teachers' association has completed arrangements for a dance. The Peerless orchestra of Willimantic will be the feature and from the number of tickets sold a big crowd is expected.

FITCHVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman motored to Westerly Sunday to visit Mrs. Chapman's brother. They had the unpleasant experience of five blow-outs on their return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cantlin of Manchester and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Bristol were week-end guests of Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Margaret Sweeney. They made the trip by automobile.

Mrs. Phoebe Thompson of Yantic was pleasantly surprised by about 30 friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Kelly, of Fitchville, Wednesday evening, it being her 71st birthday. What was played and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Thompson's children presented her a jet necklace.

Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Hetherington attended the Connecticut Baptist state convention at Danbury. They left Fitchville early Monday morning and returned Wednesday evening and speak in high praise of the exercises which they attended.

The Thursday evening C. E. meeting was held in the parsonage and led by Jeremiah Wilcox. The subject was Lessons from Patriarchs, and proved very interesting.

Sunday, Oct. 23, the services at the Baptist church will be: 11 a. m., service by Rev. William T. Thayer of Hartford; 12.15 p. m., Bible school; 7 p. m., illustrated talk by Rev. Mr. Thayer, Sub-ject, The Ocean Park Summer School; 8 p. m., Rev. Mr. Thayer will accompany Rev. W. D. Hetherington to the Scott Hill Baptist church, where they will hold a session of the Sunday school and conduct divine worship.

WILLINGTON

Bernice Wilbur has sold his home here and has left town.

Mrs. Annie Preston, who was eighty-one years old Tuesday, received many gifts and cards and was remembered by calls from friends. Among other gifts was a birthday cake, beautiful flowers, a framed picture of her house and birthday poem by Edgar Guest. In the form of a motto of dainty design, attractively framed.

Wednesday Miss Frances Mersereau went to Hartford to visit Mrs. Howard Peabody.

Misses Dunning and Palmer and Mrs. Hutchinson went Thursday to New York where they will spend the winter at Mrs. Hutchinson's home. She has been at West cottage since early summer for her health, which is somewhat improved.

The Misses Atwood will give an account of their trip abroad. The young people will hold a Bible bee on Thursday evening.

GURLEYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Steadman Storrs have moved to Storrs. The community here will miss them very much.

E. A. Walker, G. R. Dimock and Charles Chapman have been shingling for D. P. Munyan.

When a man falls into an error he is likely to be more or less injured in his descent.

SHE TOOK HER FRIEND'S ADVICE

Now is in the Best of Health Because she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Mich.—"I was not feeling well for several years and never was able to eat any breakfast and always complained of a headache or tired feeling which at times required me to stop my work and rest. I have never had a physician and never took any medicine for it until you were recommended to me by a neighbor whom I used to visit frequently. I took four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am in the best of health and enjoying my work every moment of the day."—Mrs. L. M. DARRAS, 46 Howard St., Detroit, Mich.

It is not always in business that a woman is forced to give up her work on account of ill health. It is quite as often the woman who does her own work at home. When backaches and headaches drive out all ambition, when that bearing-down sensation attacks you, when you are nervous and blue, take care to get help for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Try This for Indigestion

Foley Cathartic Tablets are just the thing for constipation. Their action is wholesome and thoroughly cleansing, without griping, nausea or inconvenience. They banish headache, biliousness, bloating, gas, bad breath, coated tongue and other symptoms of disordered digestion.

Mrs. H. J. Marchand, 36 Lawrence St., Salem, Mass., writes: "I used Foley Cathartic Tablets for constipation with good results. I keep them in the house."

COMPLETE CURE OF INDIGESTION

One Box of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" or "Fruit Liver Tablets" Brought Relief

WILLIAM GALE SHEPHERD

Old Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y. "I was bothered with Constipation, Liver Trouble and Indigestion for three years; and tried all kinds of medicine with no relief.

I was so bad I would have a dull, heavy feeling in the pit of my stomach; generally about three or four hours after eating.

I saw advertised in the "Troy Times" "Fruit-a-tives" and sent to R. W. Seymour's drug store in Chatham and bought two 50c boxes. Before I had finished one box, I was relieved and now have no more trouble. I can eat anything I desire.

I would advise anyone in the same condition as I was, to take "Fruit-a-tives"; it is a God-send, and I would not be without "Fruit-a-tives" in the house."

WILLIAM GALE SHEPHERD.
